Naomi Ragen

Dear Naomi:

Let this email certify that no one connected with ArtScroll had hired Gilad Corinaldi to represent them in any legal complaint against Naomi Ragen. I personally find it offensive and legally misleading and fraudulent that someone should allegedly make such an unauthorized representation, and I would like Mr. Corinaldi to immediately send me verification that he had no right to represent ArtScroll in this matter or I will feel free to take further action against him and his allegedly false representation to the authorities. I want an apology in writing from him and his client.

Let me make it clear that I am not discussing the merits of this case because I am not an expert on copyright law, and this core matter should be resolved amicably between the parties. My being upset is directed at how an attorney can allegedly pretend to represent ArtScroll in a case where he was not authorized to do so. If this is true, I find it to be a perversion of the legal system, and I can't sit by.

I am leaving every option open to Mesorah Publications, Ltd. in this regard, till I get a letter of apology from everyone who made unauthorized use of ArtScroll's good name in this matter.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Meir Zlotowitz
